WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1891.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1907.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

INVITATION TO THE BATH.
The sweetest words
We may divine
Are: "Come on in;
The water's fine."
—New York Sun.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

The second book of $100 worth of Globe Stamps in the coupon contest at the Bee Hive was won by Mrs. C. Wetzel.

Mr. J. D. Wyatt, who will conduct the big excursion to Niagara Falls next Thursday, was in the city Saturday. He informed THE LEDGER that about 15 Maysvillians will make the trip and that 300 people have secured tickets; 70 going from Bourbon county.

Misses Ellen Kirk, Elizabeth Barbour, Margaret Fitzgerald, Ellen Shanklin; Messrs. Russell Hopper, Wood Owens, John Fitzgerald, Alex Parker, Preston Parker, Andrew Carr, John Dudley Keith, Wadsworth Cole will leave tomorrow on the afternoon L. and N. train to attend a house party and dance given by Miss Susie Armstrong at her beautiful home in Flemingsburg.

Last night about 10 o'clock there was a riot of some kind in Gourd Point, Aberdeen, in which four or five shots were fired. The screaming of women was heard on this side of the river. There has been no report this morning of any killing and the affair was likely a drunken brawl.

Later—it was Emmett Payne, colored, shooting at his wife. No one hurt and Payne got away.

It is not often one meets with four members of a family whose combined ages approximate 350 years, but such is the case with the Parker family. W. L. Parker of Orangeburg, Steven Winslow Parker of Lewisburg, Peter Parker and Mrs. Martha McIlvaine of this city, all of the above being octogenarians. It is said the three brothers and sister will have their pictures taken in a group today. May they have many more years of usefulness before them, and health and happiness be their portion.

THE RIPLEY FAIR OF 1907.

One thousand Maysville people attend the Ripley Fair every year. This year the number may be doubled, because of the superior attractions secured by the management.

Think of "Smittie's Band" with a beautiful prima dona as cornetist! Smittie's Band, alone is well worth the price of admission. But the combination of this year's features at the Ripley Fair insures one of the best programs ever seen at a County Fair.

By rail and river at reduced rates. Ripley is so near to Kentucky that many believe the Ripley people are just a little bit cleverer and more hospitable than the real Kentuckian himself. Go to the Ripley Fair for a pleasant outing.

LAST NIGHT'S STORM

Rain and Wind Do Much Damage—
F. F. Gerbrich's Narrow Escape.

One of the most terrific wind and rain storms of the year visited this city and vicinity last evening; the water came down in sheets and the wind blew a gale, lasting for half an hour.

The shadestrees suffered considerably by having their tops and branches blown off. In Third street a section of a tall tree in front of Judge Cochran's home was blown across and severed an electric wire that fell onto the street, and Mr. F. F. Gerbrich in passing the place with his double team became tangled in the meshes of the wire and both horses were thrown down. The electric lights were out and at the time Egyptian darkness prevailed, with the exception of the scintillating sparks from the live and dangerous wire. Mr. Gerbrich's call for aid soon brought him assistance and the horses were released and put upon their feet, one of them receiving a severe cut in the flank. It's but telling the truth when it is stated Mr. Gerbrich thought his time to shuffle off this mortal coil had arrived.

Mr. Marion Moore, who lives in West Third street had the roof of his house lifted off, and a stately tree in C. D. Pearce's grounds in the West End was blown down and a big limb was blown against Mr. Jeff Easton's house in West Third street. There was no serious damage in other parts of the city so far as heard from.

MAYSVILLE VS. WASHINGTON

Mighty Base Ballist to Cross Bats Saturday Afternoon

The Maysville Volunteers will play the Washington Baseball Club at East End Park Saturday, July 27th. This will be a great game as those composing the Maysville Club are old experts at the business.

The line-up will be as follows—
Maurice Kirk, pitcher.
Reese Kirk, third base.
Samuel Daugherty, catcher.
Rob Adair, short stop.
William Wadsworth, first base.
Will Rees, second base.
Harvey Durham, center field.
Will Harbeson, left field.
Lee Browning, right field.
Joe Wood, substitute.
Russell Hopper, substitute.

This will be one of the greatest games of the season and a good crowd is expected out to see it.

An admission of 10 cents will be charged at the gate to cover expenses.

Washington has a crack team this year and we hope the Maysville boys will make them play hard to win.

ALWAYS TO THE FORE

Maysville Attorneys Will Be in Evidence at the October Term of the U. S. Supreme Court

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has decided to appeal from the judgment of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, affirming judgment of the Lewis Circuit Court in favor of Nancy Wilson's Administrator for $3,825, with interest and damages.

Citation has already been served on Hon. A. D. Cole of this city.

Mrs. Wilson was killed at a private crossing on her farm in Lewis county about six years ago, and the case was transferred to the Federal Court.

The motion to remand the case was tried by Judge Evans, who was about to render his decision when he learned that one of Attorneys, Hon. A. M. J. Cochran, had been appointed Judge for the Eastern District.

Failing to hand down his decision, it was left to Judge C. D. Clark, of Chattanooga, to try the question and he remanded the case to the Lewis Circuit Court, where it was tried with the above results.

The appeal to the Supreme Court by the railroad review the correctness of Judge Clark's decision, as well as that of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

This case and the McCabe case will both be called for hearing at the coming October term of the United States Supreme Court and as counsel on both sides are from this city, Maysville will be somewhat in evidence before that august tribunal.

MORGAN'S MEN

The Parks Hill Reunion This Year to be a Record Breaker

Not only will Morgan's Men take in this reunion, but it is expected that a great number of the Confederate veterans of other commands will be on hand.

Carlisle citizens are interested in the proposed railroad from Salt Lick to Carlisle by way of Olympian Springs, Owingsville, Sharpsburg, Moorefield, and work will be started this week on raising the bond of $35,000 which Nicholas county has been asked to subscribe.

Gus Klein, a detective, and C. T. Wilson, Jailor, of Mt. Sterling, were arrested on a warrant from Nicholas county charging them with taking property which did not belong to them. A buggy top was stolen from Thomas' livery stable in Mt. Sterling a few weeks ago and the officers traced it to Nicholas county, where they found it in a barn and brought it away with them. The owner of the barn claimed the top belonged to him and had the warrant issued for their arrest.

RAILROAD earnings continue to show a large increase over last year, testifying to a well maintained business activity in all parts of the country. Total gross earnings of all United States roads reporting for the first week of July were $2,793,539, an increase of 12.1% over the corresponding week of last year. And July is the dullest month of the year, too.

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS must be waxing inconsistent. His friends and supporters would be pleased to know whether he is running upon a cocktail, a lemonade, or a buttermilk platform. If he cuts out the buttermilk he will lose the hayseed vote; and cocktails and lemonade won't win in Old Kentucky in these prohibition and anti-prohibition times. Mr. FAIRBANKS might make the race on a plain dried apple pie platform, and let it go at that.

A STRANGE DUEL

By CAPT. JAMES WELLS.

I was in love with the little Spanish beauty before I had been at the hacienda three days. But Capt. Almaraz, the Chilian swashbuckler, already had been there a week, and I was sure that he had the better chance. She smiled at him as she never smiled at me. It made me angry. That was why I challenged him to duel, with pistols. I thought he was a coward and that he would not fight.

"Ah, captain," said he, "let us not mess up the hacienda with shooting one another. Let us settle it another way."

He led me out into the yard where the senior had two condors chained to iron posts. Great birds they were, with wings that spread perhaps ten feet. The senior had raised them from chicks, they told me.

"The birds, captain—they give me an idea. They never have flown, but their strong wings will bear them far. If a basket were fastened to them, they could lift a man in the air—perhaps. It would be worth trying."

"What do you mean?" I asked.

"Since you wish a duel to the death, let us toss for it—the loser to voyage into the air with the birds."

It was a foolish idea, but I would not be bluffed by the Chilian.

"All right, Almaraz," I said.

It is a queer country down there at the foot of the Andes. When Inez and the senior heard about it, instead of trying to prevent the odd duel between Almaraz and myself, they encouraged it. The neighbors rode in from nearby haciendas, and all the servants and riders on the rancho gathered to see the senior toss the coin.

"Tails," said he. "Capt. Wells wins. Almaraz will make the voyage."

Pretty Inez kissed the Chilian goodbye, and I almost wished that I had lost.

"Adios, dear one," she said. "The saints and the blessed virgin will save you."

Almaraz climbed into the wicker basket which had been harnessed to the giant birds. The senior unfasted the chain and the condors took wing.

For an instant it seemed certain that Almaraz would be upset from the basket. The birds resented their close partnership, and 50 to 100 feet in the air he performed like an acrobat, keeping them together. There were some angry attempts at swooping on the part of one of them, with talons splayed, and quite a bit of condor music.

But the bigger of the two was a steady-minded bird, with its eye on the snowy peaks of the Andes in the west. The rebellious one, after a minute's hesitation, saw the point, and they went rapidly aloft and westward together. With a superb sweep of their wings they rose and rose, so near each other that the tips of their pinions seemed to touch.

We leaped upon our horses and galloped after them. The horror of it was upon us. I was sorry that I had challenged my rival. The girl loved him, and why should I have been so selfish as to interfere with his happiness? I vowed that if he ever came down from his mad flight in the heavens I would be his friend forever.

The condors rose tirelessly. They were a half mile, a mile high. They became two tiny specks in the blue South American sky. Almaraz looked like a toy—like a doll. Yet with sublime nerve he stood upright in the basket and guided as best he could his feathered steeds toward the distant crags.

I soon outstripped the others, for my horse was a thoroughbred. Mile after mile we went, and still I kept in sight of the dizzy voyagers. With my field glasses, which I put to my eyes now and then, I could see them plainly.

As the harnessed condors neared the first crag, I could see Almaraz above me, waving his white handkerchief at me, and I answered him with shouts which he doubtless did not hear. The condors circled with majestic grace and then swooped down and settled upon the crag—a mere splinter that pierced the heavens. The basket bumped against the stone, and was still. It seemed almost that Almaraz was doomed. He was 1,500 feet above the earth, where no human help could reach him.

My glasses surveyed him, and I saw him wave his handkerchief again. Then I saw him take his revolver from his pocket, and pointing it at the nearest bird fired.

I could not hear the sound, but I saw the puff of white smoke and understood his plan. He had killed the smaller bird. It toppled over toward him. The weight of the dead bird and of the basket was too much for the big condor. He clung to the crag for a minute and then dropped off and attempted to fly.

Down the huge evil bird came like a parachute, beating the air with his mighty wings—down, down, down. I galloped my tired horse around in circles and shouted mad words of encouragement.

Strange as it may seem Almaraz reached the ground in safety, stepped from the basket in front of me, smiled, waved his hand politely—and fainted.

He married Inez at the hacienda that afternoon. He deserved his happiness.

And to think how mistaken a man may be! I had sized up that Chilian as a swashbuckler and a coward.

William Culton, one of the important witnesses for the Commonwealth against Caleb Powers cannot be located.

After the last trial of Powers, Culton went West to locate a gold mine in Nevada and it is reported that he starved to death while prospecting in the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

His testimony is very important to the Commonwealth and his absence may cause a postponement of the trial which is set for July 29th at Georgetown.

If Bill is dead postponing the trial won't make him any the less so. Come on, let's have that trial and hang Powers again.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

BACKACHE.

I can sympathize with a sufferer from this awful symptom of weak kidneys.

MR. P. LEONARD.

That soreness and pain in the small of the back tells too plainly of serious trouble behind it. It's not a hot water bottle or a plaster you need. That won't cure diseased kidneys. It may relieve you for a time it's true but why mask the real cause and allow the trouble to grow? Don't do it. Weak kidneys can be cured but Bright's disease, which always follows neglect of them cannot. Go and get a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery and Cooper's Quick Relief and use them faithfully. Your backache will disappear because your kidney trouble is corrected—not for a day but for good. When your kidneys are in "ship-shape" there will be nothing more to cause it.

Here's a letter from a man who suffered for years in this way and took my advice: "I have been in such bad health for some years that I finally had to give up work. I suffered from kidney trouble. My back was so sore and lame that I could scarcely get up and down. My stomach was also out of order and my nervous system broken down. I have been using the Cooper medicines for one week and actually feel like a new man. My food digests perfectly. The soreness and pain has entirely gone from my back and my kidneys are in fine shape. The medicine has strengthened me wonderfully and I cheerfully give you this testimonial for publication." Mr. P. Leonard, 49 School St., Allegheny, Pa.

We have heard a number of favorable comments on the Cooper preparations from people who have purchased them from us.

Liquid Delight.

Every one seems agreed that for every quality that goes to make soda water good our Soda Water is pre-eminent. It is not only good, but the most delightfully perfect Soda. A cold draught of such deliciousness that you would not exchange it for the fabled nectar.

It's so different from soda water as commonly served as to seem another beverage, yet it costs just the same as you have paid for the insipid kind.

POINT AU VIEW

L. T. Anderson's Stock Farm as Seen by a Visitor

Paris Democrat.

On Sunday morning we had the pleasure of spending a couple of hours with L. T. Anderson, Jr., at his Point Au View Stock Farm, on the Maysville and Lexington pike, overlooking Maysville. It was a delightful morning, and sitting under the shade trees on the hill viewing the city in the valley below, and seeing the great steamers plying the Ohio, was certainly a grand sight.

The residence of Mr. Anderson is an immense brick of fourteen rooms, and in the rear are the stables where more than thirty high-class horses are kept. At this place you can find the handsomest and the grandest bred animals. Besides the horses for harness and saddle he has a herd of Shetland ponies, the equal of any in the world.

Mr. George Ford Morris, of New York, the leading horse artist of America, was a visitor to Point Au View, last week. He photographed the residence and a number of the horses, and will make paintings of them for Mr. Anderson. He is preparing several fine animals to be shown at the principal Kentucky fairs, among them Debutant, a walk, trot, canter mare, and a fine gray mare that is said to be the grandest in Kentucky.

The residence of Mrs. John Rhodes, two and a half miles from Washington, burned yesterday at 2 p. m. Neighbors saved part of the household goods, but the dwelling was destroyed. Insured for $800. Last August the barn with all farming implements, etc., burned on the farm.

Elder Lurger, who is holding an interesting meeting at Washington and preaching some very instructive sermons, filled his regular appointment at the Dover Christian Church Sunday morning. In two weeks, when the repairs are finished, now in progress at the Dover Church, Elder Lurger will hold a protracted meeting.

MRS. W. L. PIPER.

Mrs. W. L. Piper died at Carlisle yesterday, after a protracted illness, of a complication of diseases, aged about 50 years.

She is survived by her husband and four children—Mrs. William Robb of Mayslick, Ernest, Shanklin, and Sam Metcalfe Piper; besides her aged mother, three brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Piper was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church.

The interment will take place tomorrow afternoon at Carlisle.

NAMED AS TRUSTEE

Will of Prof. L. G. Barbour Pro-bated at Louisville Yesterday.

The will of Prof. L. G. Barbour, bearing date of Richmond, Ky., December 27th, 1899, leaves all his estate in trust to his widow, Elizabeth Ann Barbour.

At her death the property is to be divided among his four children, Caroline F., Philip F., Elizabeth G., and James C. Barbour.

James Foster Barbour, a nephew of this city is made Trustee of the estate without bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burgoyne have purchased the handsome brick residence in East Second street now occupied by Mr. John Walsh and family.

The gage marks 26.5 and falling.

The Virginia will be up tonight for Pittsburgh.

The big towboat J. B. Finley will turn back from Louisville with all the coal she can handle.

The storms last week in the upper valleys caused a number of barges to break loose in the Pittsburgh harbor, and rivermen were busy for several days trying to catch the runaway property.

A heavy wind preceding a thunderstorm near St. Louis a day or so ago blew the steamboat Tennessee, valued at $20,000, against an abutment of the Eads bridge, ripping open the boat's side and sinking it. About fifteen roustabouts on board swam ashore and no lives were lost.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health. The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chaffing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and Is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, and so on. Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes or bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used Cuticura, but it did no good. A few months after, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored, after fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 to $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure. I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. Hiram Mattingly, Vermillion, S. Dak., Aug. 18, 1906."

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Maysville People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Maysville testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Maysville who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Last any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Maysville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Maysville case:

Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker, I thought my trouble was caused by my work for every time I took cold it settled in my back. Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble and never, from that time to this, have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
